

Introduction

This site uses cookies to help make it more useful and reliable. This page explains what they are, which ones we use, and how you can manage or remove them.

This website places cookies on your internet enabled device (computer, mobile device, etc.) to enable us to better serve your needs.

You can manage these small files and learn more about them from www.allaboutcookies.org

Cookies Used by this Website

This website uses cookies to identify you as a logged-in user. This allows you to navigate around the site without having to log in at every page. This cookie is dynamic meaning it does not have a fixed name. It will expire after you log out, or if the session expires through inactivity, requiring you to log in again.

Another cookie is used for remembering your username and password should you tick the 'Remember Me' box, allowing users to access the site for a period without having to log in each time. This cookie expires after 24hours.

How to Control and Delete Cookies

We will not use cookies to collect personally identifiable information about you.

However, if you wish to restrict or block the cookies which are set by our websites, or indeed any other website, you can do this through your browser settings. The 'Help' function within your browser should tell you how to do this.

Alternatively, you may wish to visit www.allaboutcookies.org, which contains comprehensive information on how to do this on a wide variety of browsers. You will also find details on how to delete cookies from your machine as well as more general information about cookies.
